

Mary Veazie, MBA, CPA, CHC, CHRC

Mary Veazie is the executive director of clinical research finance at a large academic medical center in Texas. She has more than 17 years of experience in clinical research finance, more than 30 years of financial and auditing experience and accounting for non-profit organizations. Veazie is a Certified Public Accountant and is certified in Healthcare Research Compliance and Healthcare Compliance.

Her skill set includes full comprehension of the clinical research billing process and its impact on an organization's clinic operations and revenue cycle. She received training as an executive coach and is pursuing her coaching certification.