COURSE OBJECTIVE

The main purpose of this course is to introduce students to the important issues of Global Human Resource Management. We will look at Global HRM in two ways. First, how HRM in other countries differs from HRM in the United States, and second how human resource management of multi-national organizations differs from domestic organizations. We will study topics including global pay, global selection, global labor relations, and global HRM strategy. Students will experience global HRM first hand with a trip to Berlin, Germany.

ACCOMMODATIONS FOR STUDENTS WITH DISABILITIES

The University of Houston complies with Section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act of 1973 and the Americans with Disabilities Act of 1990, pertaining to the provision of reasonable academic adjustments/auxiliary aids for disabled students. In accordance with Section 504 and ADA guidelines, UH strives to provide reasonable academic adjustments/auxiliary aids to students who request and require them. If you believe that you have a disability requiring an academic adjustments/auxiliary aid, please contact the Justin Dart Jr. Student Accessibility Center (formerly the Justin Dart, Jr. Center for Students with DisABILITIES).

ACADEMIC HONESTY POLICY

The Bauer College of Business is proud of the high quality of our students and our academic programs. We recognize the importance of academic honesty in maintaining our high standards. In the rare situation where there may be a breach of academic honesty, we would appreciate your assistance in bringing the situation to our attention. We will, of course, take appropriate action in all cases. If you have questions about the Academic Honesty Policy, it is included in the Student Handbook. The staff of the Dean of Students Office are also available to answer questions. AI is not allowed for any written assignments for this course.

COURSE EVALUATIONS

The Bauer College of Business has a policy that requires all of its instructors to be evaluated by their students. The results of these evaluations are important to provide feedback to instructors on how their performance can be improved. In addition, these evaluations are carefully considered in promotion, salary adjustment, and other important decisions. We openly encourage students to provide feedback to the instructors and the Bauer College of Business through the evaluation process.

UH CAPS

Counseling and Psychological Services (CAPS) can help students who are having difficulties managing stress, adjusting to college, or feeling sad and hopeless. You can reach CAPS (www.uh.edu/caps<<http://www.uh.edu/caps>>) by calling 713-743-5454 during and after business hours for routine appointments or if you or someone you know is in crisis. No appointment is necessary for the "Let's Talk" program (http://www.uh.edu/caps/outreach/lets_talk.html), a drop-in consultation service at convenient locations and hours around campus.

CLASSROOM AND TRIP CIVILITY

As students enrolled in courses offered by the Bauer College, you are expected to adhere to the ethical principles described in the Bauer Code of Ethics and Professional Conduct (Bauer Code), in addition to those required by the UH Student Handbook. You may review the Bauer Code by clicking on the following link - <http://www.bauer.uh.edu/BCBE/BauerCode.htm>. You may obtain a copy of the UH Student Handbook from the Dean of Students Office located in room 252 of the University Center, or by visiting the publications webpage on the Dean of Student's website at <http://www.uh.edu/dos/pub.html>. Students are expected to conduct themselves as follows:

- Timely arrivals and departures – It is expected that you arrive on time and be prepared to depart on any excursions on time. Further, it is expected that you be at the designated meeting place to return to the hotel on time.
- Attention during lectures and visits – It is expected that you participate and provide your full attention during tours, lectures and company visits. This means that you should avoid unnecessary discussions with fellow students; taking photographs, read newspapers or magazines; or other activities that may be disruptive. You should also make sure that you get enough sleep the previous evening, so that your attention is not impaired during program activities.
- Unauthorized use of cell phones or beepers during trip activities – Please turn your cell phones and beepers off before coming to any course activities. If you find it necessary to keep your phone turned on, please put it on vibrate mode.
- Respect for hosts, guest lecturers, other students, and other hotel guests – Students should treat hosts, guest lecturers, other students, and other hotel guests in a respectful manner.
- Preparation for class – You are expected to prepare for the trip by completing all assignments and researching each organization visited. Your preparation will show by the quality of your questions and comments.
- Harassment – Making harassing or obscene comments or gestures to other students, faculty, guest lecturers, or hosts will not be tolerated. This includes sending harassing or obscene email or voice messages to others.

EXCUSED ABSENCE POLICY

Regular class attendance, participation, and engagement in coursework are important contributors to student success. Absences may be excused as provided in the University of Houston Graduate Excused Absence Policy for reasons including: medical illness of student or close relative, death of a close family member, legal or government proceeding that a student is obligated to attend, recognized professional and educational activities where the student is presenting, and University-sponsored activity or athletic competition. Additional policies address absences related to military service, religious holy days, pregnancy and related conditions, and disability.

PARTICIPATION

The Berlin trip is a vital part of this course. Students are expected to positively represent the University of Houston, act professionally, abide all the laws of the country being visited, participate in all excursions and seminars (unless they are deemed optional), and to attend all classes. Violating the Bauer Code, delaying the group, being disruptive, missing activities, being non-responsive, drinking alcohol during program activities, and bringing along guests are examples of behaviors that will negatively affect the contribution grade. Student's will not be penalized for lack of participation that was caused by factors beyond their control (e.g., flight delays, mandatory quarantine, etc.). Students' behaviors on the Berlin trip counts 50 points. Canvas discussion contribution counts 10 points. The Canvas discussion will be based on the week's readings as specified on the schedule below. Canvas discussion contribution points will be based on the quality and quantity of each student's postings, as well as the quantity of postings each student has read.

High quality postings will be more than just opinions; they will include references and links to material that supports the opinions. Students are expected to contribute two quality posts per week, for a total of at least 10 quality posts. To get full credit, students are expected to read at least 90% of the posts. AI is not allowed for the creation of any posts.

PRE-TRIP QUESTIONS

During orientation, students will be given the name of three companies we will be visiting in Berlin. Each student should research these companies and for each of the three provide me with 1) a one paragraph summary of the company; and 2) three questions that would be appropriate to ask a company representative.

The questions should show considerable thought, a basic knowledge of the company, and be related to human resource management or legal issues. Questions that can be answered in one word (or a short sentence), questions that are not HR or global legal issue related, and questions that might be embarrassing to company employees are not appropriate. In such cases, students may be asked to submit new questions so that they can still get full credit for the next assignment (post-trip answers). These 3 paragraphs and 9 questions are due by 5:00pm, Wednesday, May 14th, and should be turned in through Canvas' assignment function. The questions are worth 10 points, with 1 point off for every day late.

POST-TRIP ANSWERS

Students should seek the answers to their questions during our Berlin trip. The questions should be thoroughly answered. If you can not find the answer to your specific questions from company representatives, research the issue and answer it for German companies in general. The nine questions and their answers in word format should be turned in on Canvas (assignments) by 5:00pm, May 28th. The answers are worth 10 points, with 1 point off for every day late.

REFLECTION PAPER

This paper is meant to be the final integrating component of your experience on this trip. It should be 4 – 6 pages in length, 1.5-line spacing, normal size font (no larger than 12 point). It consists of two parts:

1. Your own thoughtful reflection on the trip, your experience and how it might connect to your future endeavors, personal or professional; these trips are a type of experiential learning – you derive knowledge and insights from participation in the trip itself. At your stage of academic career, as a graduate student, I expect more insight in your paper than a bulleted list of things that you saw.
2. What did you see in Germany, what did you expect? In terms of the substantive portion of the course, was there something that you expected; something you missed? Look for manifestations of things you can't see directly but that impact the environment – politics, climate, social issues and so on. Go back to the book and other readings and draw inspiration from those. The paper should be turned in via Canvas' assignment function and will be submitted to turnitin.com to be analyzed for plagiarism and AI use. (Go to http://www.turnitin.com/research_site/e_home.html to learn more about plagiarism and how to avoid it.) The paper is worth 20 points and is due May 30th by 5:00pm, with 2 points off for every day late.
